

THE CHURCH I SEE - ADDENDUM

The Church I See is a Prophetic Church. A people like the sons of Issachar who have understanding of the times and know what the 'Ekklesia' ought to do. A people who can hear God accurately and speak as His oracle. The Church I See is a Prophetic People. A people who have the Kingdom paradigm and see from the perspective of the King.

The Church I See is a Royal Priesthood. A royal army of Kings who utter the voice and the Word of the Lord. A People who walk in kingly authority - who legislate and execute the decree of the King of Kings. A people who walk in dominion and Apostolic Authority. Taking territory, turning back from no-one and putting the enemy on the run. A Church whose terror and fear is upon the enemy and his cohorts. The Church I See is a Church of Kingdom Ambassadors who are about the business of the King to ensure He suffers no loss.

The Church I See is an Emerging Awakened Priesthood. A Church who takes her place as the watchman for the land and the nations. A Church who stands in the gap to ensure the land is not destroyed. A Church who bows her knee before His throne so the nation and other lands will bow before the King of Kings. The Church I See is a Priest who flees from every kind of defilement. A people who pursue holiness without fear or intimidation of our times. A people who are holy indeed and holy in deed.

The Church I See is a Church of Purpose. A people who activate and pursue the purpose of God for their personal lives, families and nations. A people who understand His purpose and are yielded to His will. The Church I See is Purposeful. Engaging in building that which will endure the test of fire, and earn her a "Well done, good and faithful servant". The Church I See is Purposeful - determined to live full and die empty. A people who engage God's purpose to fulfill divine Destiny and impact generations. A people who mentor and prepare younger generations to fulfill divine destiny. The Church I See is Living For Eternity.
